To Whom It May Concern:

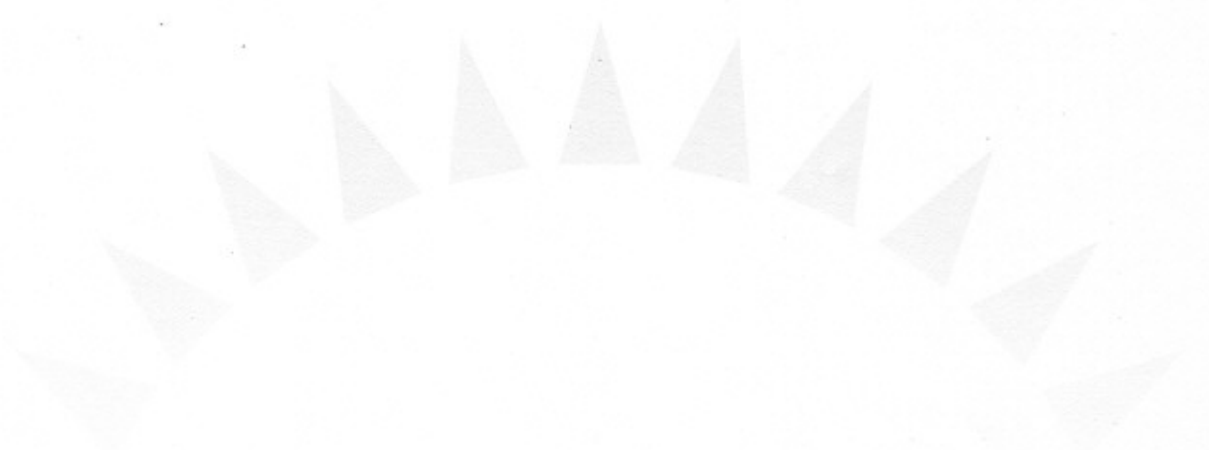

I am writing this letter on behalf of TrowTiere and Pete Trowbridge, with regard to their performance as general contractors on a number of projects that we have completed over the past four years. Without question, I would give Pete and TrowTiere my highest recommendation for consideration as the general contractor on any project that you are considering. Pete and his staff are very thorough, and provided me with the highest level of communication and support in every project we have worked on. In addition to the professionalism of the TrowTiere staff, I was highly impressed with the quality of subcontractors used on our projects, and TrowTiere's willingness to intervene, and even remove contractors who were not working up to acceptable standards.

In closing, I can honestly say that working with TrowTiere has felt like working with a partner in the completion of our projects, more than a contractor. From my personal experience, I would find it hard to consider working with anyone else but TrowTiere on our future construction projects.

Sincerely,
